UNIFORM

STUDIO UNIFORM

All students enrolled at Stratosphere Performing Arts are required to wear studio uniforms in class. Wearing the correct uniform is a demonstration of respect for the studio, the style of dance and also for safety reasons.

There are a variety of options to choose from and all pieces can be worn in any class with the exception of ballet where a leotard must be worn.

Our Tiny Tots students have their own very special dress designed just for them. This is a great selection to wear to class, however, they are also free to wear any other piece of uniform to class.
